HAT TRICK – HOCKEY, Canadian Children's Book Center Our Choice Award Hockey fans will enjoy this suspenseful, action-packed story of Leigh Aberdeen, a 12-year-old Metis girl who must fight to stay on an all boys team that doesn't want her. Leigh soon discovers the difficulties of leading a secret double life - the hard way.
ROOKIE SEASON – HOCKEY, Canadian Children's Book Center Our Choice Award In the sequel to Hat Trick, Leigh Aberdeen's girls' only team must let a boy join. The problems mount when her goalie and best friend begins acting mysteriously.
RINK RIVALS – HOCKEY, Canadian Children's Book Center Our Choice Award When 13-year-old Metis twins Brynley and Evan Selkirk move from Hudson's Bay to the big city, they find making the right choices difficult. Playing against each other on opposite hockey teams while outsmarting the local bad guy only adds to their problems.
A GOAL IN SIGHT – HOCKEY, Canadian Children's Book Center Our Choice Award Aiden Walsh had no idea what he was in for when he receives community service for bullying another hockey player. He must be a companion for Eric McLean, who is visually impaired. Aiden panics when he discovers Eric plays for the Calgary Seeing Ice Dogs, a blind hockey team and he expects Aiden to play also.
FREE THROW – BASKETBALL, Canadian Children's Book Centre Our Choice Award Funny and fun filled, Free Throw is the story of how First Nations boy Matthew Eagletail returns to the court – with a little help from his friends, including the most unexpected of friends- one of his five brand new stepsisters!
TRIPLE THREAT – BASKETBALL Matthew Eagletail's Bobcats use fair play, foul play - whatever it takes to win against the toughest team around, the Mean Machine. Action and suspense abound in this sequel to Free Throw.
SOCCER STAR – SOCCER, Canadian Children's Book Center Our Choice Award Samantha Aqsarniq Keyes, a 13-year old Inuit girl who lives on an Armed Forces Base, feels she is capable of handling both soccer and a starring role in the Drama Club, but the house rule is only one extra-curricular activity. Sam finds herself caught in a web of lying to her parents, her coach and her soccer teammates in order to be both on the stage and a soccer star!
LIGHTNING RIDER – TEEN MYSTERY January Fournier is a 16-year-old Metis girl who must clear her brother when he is falsely accused of motorcycle theft. Tough to do when he is caught red handed on the stolen bike. Fast motorcycle action and intrigue for young adult readers set in the wild Kananaskis Forest of Alberta.
WILD RIDE – TEEN MYSTERY, Arthur Ellis Mystery Award Nominee January Fournier is back in the sequel to Lightning Rider! Jan and her new family have moved to Banff, Alberta and when Willow Whitecloud, an RCMP Summer Student, comes to live with them, things start to happen. Is it coincidence that a rash of grizzly bear poaching begins soon after Willow arrives? An action packed read with fast motorcycles, deadly poachers, computer hacking and evil spirits all clashing to make this book a truly Wild Ride!
RACING FEAR – TEEN MYSTERY Trent and Adam were racing buddies until an accident, with Adam at the wheel put Trent in the hospital. The teens try to pick up their friendship, but Adam's guilt and Trent's odd behaviour make it tough. Why is Trent hanging around with Marcus, a guy who he can't stand? And why isn't his Ritalin working anymore? When Adam discovers Trent is dealing with the dark side, it's a race to save his friend from himself.
DREAM RACER- TEEN MYSTERY In this sequel to Racing Fear, Zoë's caught the racing bug. She thinks she might even have the stuff to become a racecar engineer one day. But Zoë's mother has another dream for her daughter, and it's called "Zoë Kendall, M.D." What does this mean for Adam, her co-driver and boyfriend? Zoë must follow her own dream, even if it means hurting the ones she loves.
AT RISK – TEEN MYSTERY, Canadian Children's Book Center Our Choice Award Tia, a 19-year-old black Canadian university student, works at a special ranch designed to "scare straight" at-risk youth. She tries to bond with Sage, a street kid with a bad record, but Sage resists Tia's overtures and when money goes missing, all fingers point to the troubled teen.
BELLE OF BATOCHÉ – HISTORICAL MYSTERY, Canadian Children's Book Center- Our Choice Award; Ontario Library Association- Best Bet; Edmonton Public Schools- Best of the Best, Red Cedar Nominee Belle and Sarah can't stand each other and when both girls enter a contest together, Belle suspects Sarah of cheating, but before she can prove it, the 1885 Riel Rebellion explodes around them and the girls must work together to save themselves, all thoughts of bell ringing forgotten.
SECRET SIGNS – HISTORICAL MYSTERY When 12-year-old Henry Dafoe runs away from his farm near Winnipeg to find his father, he has no idea he'll end up riding the rails across the prairies with a hobo named Clickety Clack and discovering what the Depression is all about. Using the secret code of hobo symbols, the two travelers overcome dust storms, grasshopper plagues and angry railway police as they journey to the Glenmore Dam Relief Project in Calgary. Their success depends on help from friendly tramps, soup kitchens, stolen food and most of all, the hobo's Secret Signs.
